The petitioner is aggrieved by the fact that a claim for employment under the dying in harness scheme has not been considered so far by the third respondent. She is also aggrieved that the retirement benefits due under the account of her late husband Lonan Chauro has not been disbursed so far.

2. On instructions, learned Standing Counsel for the Corporation submits that a decision on both aspects will be taken within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment. Submission is recorded.

In the circumstances, the writ petition is disposed of directing the third respondent to look into Exts.P4 and P5, and take a decision on both, as regards the petitioner's claim for appointment under the dying in harness and disbursal of the retirement benefits of her late husband, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
